The Motion to Sell and Notice of Upset Bid Procedures is on file in the Office of the undersigned Clerk, and you may review the same during regular business hours of the Court.

Your rights may be affected. You should read these papers carefully and discuss them with your attorney, if you have one in this bankruptcy case. If you do not have an attorney, you may wish to consult one.

If you do not want the court to approve the sale of the property (free and clear of liens) or you wish to make an upset bid, then you or your attorney must file with the Court a written objection or a written upset bid in accordance with the terms outlined in the motion to sell, within 23 days from the date of this notice. You must also mail or deliver a copy of your objection or upset bid to the Chapter 7 trustee and the United States Trustee.

If you file an objection within 23 days, a hearing on the motion and your objection will be held at a time, date and place to be set by the Court. If you file a qualified upset bid within 21 days, the trustee will notice a time and place for an auction of the property.

If you or your attorney do not take these steps, the court may approve the sale of the property (free and clear of liens) without any further notice or hearing.
